

WorkforceConnections

Your connection to work and training.

TRAINING
PROGRAMS

CORRECTIONS

Connecting to Second Chances

Build a future. Change your life.

Eligibility

Participants must be 18 or older, currently in jail, prison or on electronic monitoring. Participants must also have a release date and a desire to enter the workforce and/or educational training programs.

Program Benefits

- Pre- and post-release services
- Mentoring partnership
- Financial assistance
- Individual Development Plan
- Connections to community resources

Connecting to Second Chances is designed to provide tools for successful re-entry into society. Workforce Connections will help you design and implement an action plan to overcome barriers through regular meetings with a mentor and employment coordinators.

Mentors and Employment Coordinators Will Help You

- Reduce chances of relapsing into criminal behavior
- Establish positive relationships
- Learn self-independence through employment and educational training
- Determine referrals to other services and agencies

For More Information: Contact Tom Stark at 608-433-2772

The Second Chance Act is funded by the Department of Justice.

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program. TTY users 1-800-947-3529. Auxiliary aids and services available upon request to individuals with disabilities.